On November 5, 2020, Mr. White was arrested by members of the Paterson Police Department and charged with simple assault and criminal mischief. According to the police report, Mr. White assaulted his girlfriend by striking her in the eye due to suspicions of infidelity. Mr. White does not live with his girlfriend; however, on occasions spends nights at her residence with her three children. The children did not witness the domestic dispute.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Mr. White was released from the Passaic County Corrections Center on November 6, 2020. Prior to this new arrest, he was being supervised on a Low Intensity Caseload. As a result of his arrest on November 5, 2020, he was transferred back to a general supervision caseload.

On November 9, 2020, the undersigned engaged in a discussion with the alleged victim, D.S. Reportedly, she plans to dismiss the restraining order and no longer wishes to pursue the charges. Adding, she has forgiven Mr. White for assaulting her and they have resolved their relationship issues. She reports feeling safe and "just wanted to teach him a lesson." D.S. was provided with domestic violence resources. Mr. White was referred to the U.S. Probation Office's anger management/healthy relationships program, the STOP Program. His participation in the ten-week program began on November 9, 2020. At this time, we request that the Court consider taking no action. This will allow our office to monitor the status of the pending case and relationship, as well as his overall compliance with the program and his Court-ordered conditions. The undersigned has provided Mr. White with a verbal reprimand and reviewed cognitive behavioral skills. We will notify the Court, including the most appropriate recommendation, upon receiving the disposition of the pending charges. If any other instances of non-compliance arise, the Court will be notified immediately.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
